

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of partisan dirty politics.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. They are not serving the public interest by airing this fake documentary.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
